

Eleanor Turner short biography 1 (94 words)

Eleanor's musical career began at the age of fifteen at the Queen Elizabeth Hall in London, where she made her concerto debut conducted by Daniel Harding, live on Classic FM. Since then, Eleanor has forged a unique path, creating and commissioning new acoustic and electronic music, performing around the world. Eleanor is particularly grateful to the PRS Foundation for New Music, the Musicians Benevolent Fund and the Wingate Scholarship for having facilitated many of her creative projects, as well as Salvi Harps for their support. Eleanor is Head of Harp at Birmingham Conservatoire. www.eleanorturner.com

Eleanor Turner short biography 2 (74 words)

Eleanor Turner is a passionate ambassador for the harp, performing professionally for over eighteen years since making her London concerto debut aged just fifteen, with the Academy of St Martin in the Fields conducted by Daniel Harding and broadcast live on Classic Fm. Eleanor has performed solo around Europe, in New Orleans and Sydney and is looking forward to her first trip to Hong Kong this summer for the 13th World Harp Congress. www.eleanorturner.com