Tāla Tarang

Harp and Tabla Duo

Tāla Tarang: Rhythm Waves

Tāla Tarang means 'rhythm waves'; an apt name for the one-of-a-kind pairing of Mendi Singh on tabla (Indian drums) and harpist Eleanor Turner.

From intimate jazz clubs to concert halls and festivals, Tāla Tarang “creatively weave strands of traditional, contemporary, folk, and classical music into a musical tapestry reflecting world cultures and celebrating humanity” Dr. Bob Ramdhanie MBE, Rupununi Festival.

On the world stage

Tabla maestro Mendi and harp virtuoso Eleanor both received worldwide acclaim before forming Tāla Tarang in 2014. Mendi has collaborated with artists such as Peter Gabriel, Darius Brubeck, Anada Shankar, Shalil Shankar and Take That, performing to over half a million people with them on their Wonderland tour. Eleanor has performed in Shanghai, New Orleans, Sydney, Hong Kong and all around Europe and is one of the preeminent harpists of her generation.
